🔔 Important Login Information

Before entering your University Computing Account credentials, verify that the URL for this page begins with: passport.pitt.edu. In the Safari browser, you may need to click or tap your address bar to view the URL.

Your credentials are your key to accessing online resources at Pitt. Never share them with anyone---for any reason.

You must completely exit your web browser when you are done accessing services that require authentication, otherwise your login will remain in effect.

Step 5: After logging in, first time users will need to request access to BigMouth. User can request access by filling in the form shown below and then clicking on the “Click to Request Access” button.
