AE-University Housing guidelines for Rental Payment and Late Charge Administration

- AE-University Housing accepts personal checks, money orders and cashier’s checks as acceptable methods of payment.

- AE-University Housing does not accept cash, credit cards, checks drawn on foreign banks, or temporary checks.

- Rent is due on the 1st day of each month. AE-University Housing gives a grace period of the first fifteen (15) days of the month before late charges begin to accrue. Late charges will accrue at a rate of five (5) dollars per day beginning on the 16th day of each month. Since AE-University Housing gives such a generous grace period for rental collection, late charges are strictly enforced.
