

NEW INVESTIGATOR DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

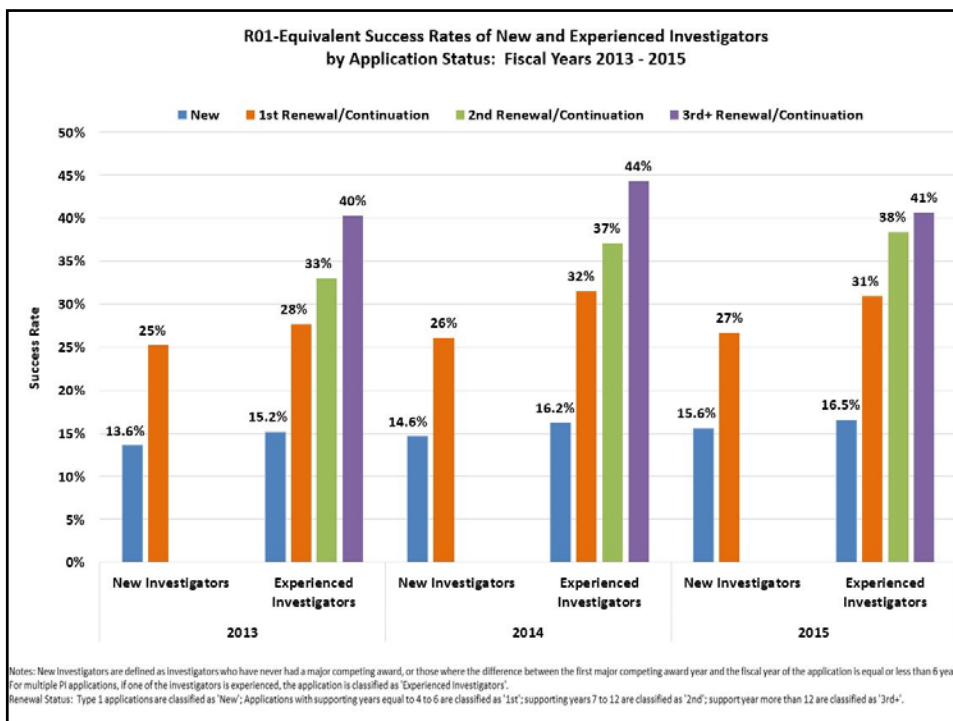

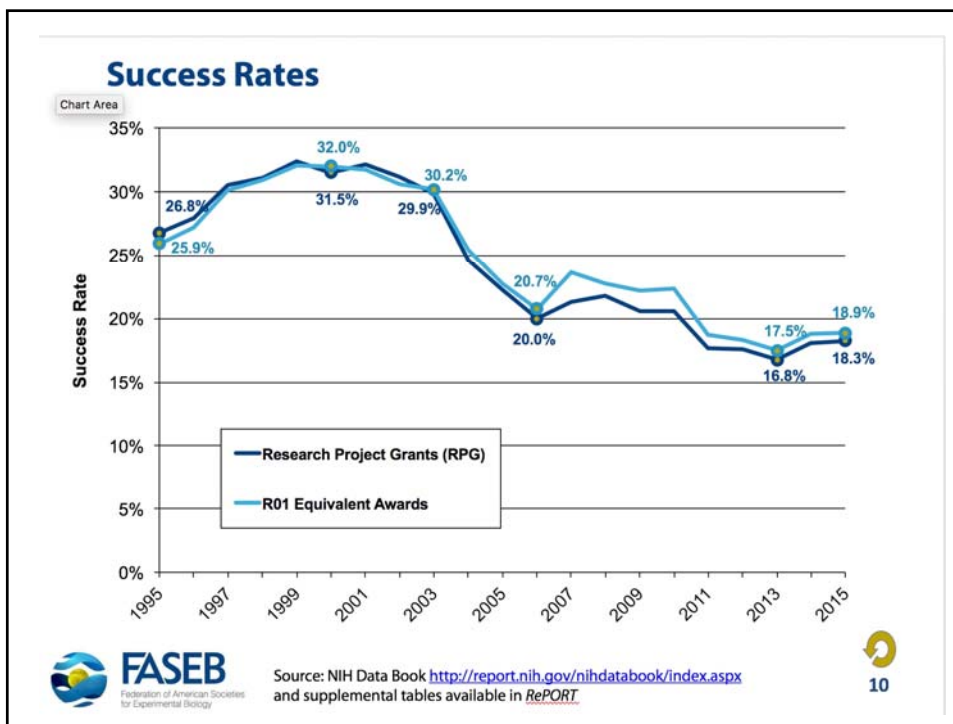

GRANTS 101

JANUARY 14-15, 2019

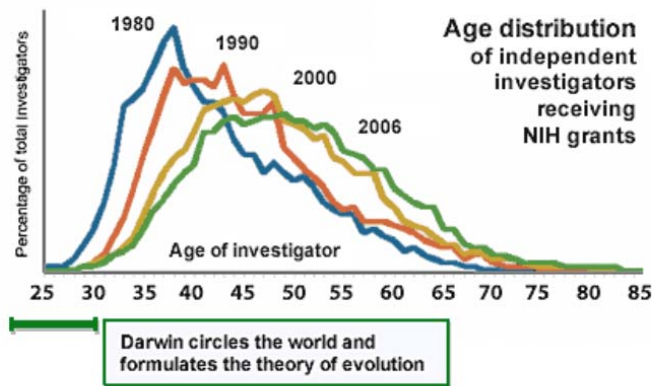

Kevin A. Morano, PhD

Associate Vice President of Faculty Affairs
 Dev RJ Bulger Distinguished Professorship
 Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs, McGovern Medical School
 Professor, Microbiology and Molecular Genetics

The average age of first-grant PIs is increasing

<http://metamodern.com/2009/11/27/great-science-great-scientists-and-icons/>

New Investigator Development Program: NIDP

Initiated in 2004 by the UT-HSC Office of Research

- Develop and refine grant-writing skills
- Succeed in securing external funds

www.uth.edu/nidp

NIDP Courses

Grants 101: Overview of UTHealth policies/procedures

Grants 102: In-depth 6-month grant-writing workshop with mentored review process. Goal to submit grant application must be met!

- How to formulate a competitive grant application
- Monthly seminar/discussion sessions
- Grant writing broken down stepwise
- Mentored experience

Workbook: Grant Writers' Seminars and Workshops, LLC (GWSW)

Grants 102

- Mentored preparation of a research grant
- Step-by-step advice from experienced and FUNDED faculty
- Assembly, editing, streamlining
- Responding to critiques
- >$82M in funding

