ALTERNATIVE (private) LOAN APPLICANTS:

Alternative loans are loans offered by banks or other agencies that help pay for educational expenses when all other financial aid options have been exhausted. These loans typically carry a higher risk in comparison to Federal student loans primarily because of higher interest rates, repayment obligations and credit approval requirements.

- I understand that neither an alternative or CAL loan may exceed my Cost of Attendance (COA). I understand the alternative or CAL loan will be accepted on myUTH by the Office of Student Financial Services for the amount approved by the lender not to exceed my COA.
I understand the alternative or CAL loan will disburse equally across all enrolled terms for the award period unless the Office of Student Financial Services indicates otherwise.
